El Camino College Renews SCRTTC Membership

Los Angeles, CA - The Southern California Transit Training Consortium (SCRTTC) SCRTTC is pleased to announce the reinstatement of El Camino College as a renewed SCRTTC member through the efforts their Community Advancement Division's Dean Jose Anaya and SCRTTC's Program Manager Dave Stumpo, APTREX President and CEO.

This exciting accomplishment will enable SCRTTC to tap El Camino's resources for additional leadership management course offerings as an ongoing SCRTTC collaboration continues with California State Long Beach University's Center for International Trade and Transportation Center (CSLB/CITT) FHWA Transportation Education Development Pilot Program (TEDPP).

SCRTTC members have been engaged in the TEDPP efforts by the facilitation of APTREX in order to provide transit specific input to the focus groups, surveys, as well as the Beta 1 delivery of the in-class 'Frontline Leadership' course conducted in March at El Camino College.

The in-class Beta 1 delivery of 'Frontline Leadership' has been supplemented by the on-line course offering of 'Managing High Tech Projects' offering in conjunction with CSLB/CITT, APTREX and the University of Maryland's CITE Distance Learning program. As a renewed member of the SCRTTC, El Camino College can assist the consortium in meeting management training needs as identified in the updated 2009 Needs Assessment and Skill Gap Analysis.

The consortium has delivered over 20,000 hours of training to more than 1500 transit employees that maintain vehicles every day. For further information about the Consortium, please visit our website at www.scrttc.com.
